

Financial Advisor Internship Program

If you've ever wished you could take charge ... if you've ever been told you're a natural leader As a student preparing for your career, it is important you find an opportunity that offers challenging work in a learning environment. With the Edward Jones Financial Advisor Internship Program, you will gain the knowledge and experience required to be a successful Financial Advisor at Edward Jones. As an intern, you will be teamed with a Financial Advisor host working in a local branch office and will receive hourly compensation.

What does the Financial Advisor Internship Program entail?

- Work one-on-one with a Financial Advisor to develop an understanding of the industry and business practices
- Develop strategies to assist a branch team in meeting business objectives
- Participate in learning modules focused on understanding the Edward Jones culture and unique business model
- Engage with potential and current clients to help create the ideal Edward Jones client experience

Who should apply

- Candidates who demonstrate a drive to succeed and have a strong interest in pursuing a Financial Advisor career after graduation
- Students in their junior or senior year of college (with one semester remaining before graduation) are eligible to apply. Applicants need a minimum GPA of 3.0.
- Students with excellent leadership, communication, teamwork and service skills

How to apply:

To apply for the Financial Advisor Internship Program, or to find additional information, visit careers.edwardjones.com/FAIntern